

Preface and Acknowledgments

This collection forms part of the proceedings of a conference at the annual gathering of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines (CBCP) entitled "Walking through the Development of the Local Churches after the Spanish Regime: A Historical Reflection with the CBCP" held on 20–21 January 2010.

We are deeply grateful to the church historians of different theological institutes who served as researchers and speakers of this conference: Antonio de Castro, SJ, of the Loyola School of Theology; Antolin Uy, SVD, of the Divine Word Seminary; Marcelo Manimtim, CM, of the St. Vincent School of Theology; Jose Femilou Gutay, OFM, of the Inter-congregational Theological Center; and Albert Flores of San Carlos Seminary. We thank several members of the CBCP who served as members of the panel of reactors to the conference papers: Archbishop Jesús Dosado of Ozamis, Archbishop Ramon Arguelles of Lipa, Archbishop Onesimo Gordoncillo of Capiz, Archbishop Antonio Ledesma of Cagayan de Oro and Bishop Leonardo Medrozo of Tagbilaran.

Daniel Franklin Pilario, CM, acted as the conference's main organizer, convenor, and facilitator; and Gerardo Vibar, CM, took care of documentation. Upon the initiative of Archbishop Jesús Dosado from whom the proposal first came, the conference was sponsored by the CBCP Committee on the Cultural Heritage of the Church under Bishop Julito Cortes, its chairperson, and Ted Torralba, its executive secretary. The conference and this publication would not have been possible without the resources and logistical support of the St. Vincent School of Theology and Adamson University under its president, Gregorio Bañaga, CM.

To all of them, we acknowledge our indebtedness and gratitude.
